God be with you.

And also with you.

Let us pray.

O God, you have prepared for those who love you such good things as surpass our understanding: Pour into our hearts such love towards you, that we, loving you in all things and above all things, may obtain your promises, which exceed all that we can desire; through Jesus Christ our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, for ever and ever. Amen.

Dear God, with deep gratitude we thank you for those who guard, guide and serve our nations. We remember the many brave women and men who have given their lives through the history of our countries to protect us and those we love from danger and harm and we commit to your eternal care those who gave the last full measure of devotion by sacrificing their lives to secure and safeguard our liberties. Bless their memory, as well as their family, friends and community who now enjoy the freedom for which they died. We also remember all those who sustained injury to mind, body or spirit in the course of their service. We salute and commended to your divine protection all those who serve in the military or as first responders. In gratitude, let us always remember their sacrifices. This we pray in the name of Jesus, even as we plead for peace and justice in our time. Amen.

Acts / Los Hechos 16:9-15 | Paul, Barnabas and John Mark begin their ministry in Philippi. / Pablo, Bernabé y Juan Marcos comienzan su ministerio en Filipi.

A Reading from the Acts of the Apostles

During the night Paul had a vision: there stood a man of Macedonia pleading with him and saying, "Come over to Macedonia and help us." When he had seen the vision, we immediately tried to cross over to Macedonia, being convinced that God had called us to proclaim the good news to them. We therefore set sail from Troas and took a straight course to Samothrace, the following day to Neapolis, and from there to Philippi, which is a leading city of the district of Macedonia and a Roman colony. We remained in this city for some days. On the Sabbath day we went outside the gate by the river, where we supposed there was a place of prayer, and we sat down and spoke to the women who had gathered there. A certain woman named Lydia, a worshiper of God, was listening to us; she was from the city of Thyatira and a dealer in purple cloth. The Lord opened her heart to listen eagerly to what was said by Paul. When she and her household were baptized, she urged us, saying, "If you have judged me to be faithful to the Lord, come and stay at my home." And she prevailed upon us.

Hear what the Spirit is saying to the Churches.

Thanks be to God.

Psalm / Salmo 67 | A thanksgiving psalm for a good harvest. / Un salmo de acción de gracias para una buena cosecha.

Let us read Psalm 67 responsively.

May God be merciful to us and bless us, * show us the light of his countenance and come to us.

Let your ways be known upon earth, *

your saving health among all nations.

Let the peoples praise you, O God; *

let all the peoples praise you.

Let the nations be glad and sing for joy, *

for you judge the peoples with equity and guide all the nations upon earth.

Let the peoples praise you, O God; *

let all the peoples praise you.

The earth has brought forth her increase; *

may God, our own God, give us his blessing.

May God give us his blessing, * and may all the ends of the earth stand in awe of him.

Revelation / Apocalipsis 21:10, 22-22:5 | The new Jerusalem coming down from heaven. / La nueva Jerusalén que viene del cielo.

A Reading from the Revelation of John.

And in the spirit he carried me away to a great, high mountain and showed me the holy city Jerusalem coming down out of heaven from God. Then the angel showed me the river of the water of life, bright as crystal, flowing from the throne of God and of the Lamb through the middle of the street of the city. On either side of the river is the tree of life with its twelve kinds of fruit, producing its fruit each month, and the leaves of the tree are for the healing of the nations. Nothing accursed will be found there any more. But the throne of God and of the Lamb will be in it, and his servants will worship him; they will see his face, and his name will be on their foreheads. And there will be no more night; they need no light of lamp or sun, for the Lord God will be their light, and they will reign forever and ever.

Hear what the Spirit is saying to God's people.

Thanks be to God.

John / Juan 14:23-29 | Jesus gives the promised gift of the peace of God's reign. / Jesús da el regalo prometido de la paz del reinado de Dios.

Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus said to Judas (not Iscariot), "Those who love me will keep my word, and my Father will love them, and we will come to them and make our home with them. Whoever does not love me does not keep my words, and the word that you hear is not mine but is from the Father who sent me. "I have said these things to you while I am still with you. But the Advocate, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in my name, will teach you everything and remind you of all that I have said to you. Peace I leave with you; my peace I give to you. I do not give to you as the world gives. Do not let your hearts be troubled, and do not let them be afraid. You heard me say to you, 'I am going away, and I am coming to you.' If you loved me, you would rejoice that I am going to the Father, because the Father is greater than I. And now I have told you this before it occurs, so that when it does occur you may believe.

The Gospel of our Savior.

Praise to you, Lord Christ.

Prayers of the People / Oraciones del Pueblo

1 Sisters and brothers, do not let your hearts be troubled, and do not let them be afraid. The God of peace has prepared for us such good things as surpass our understanding, so let us rejoice, saying, "Let the peoples praise you, O God; let all the peoples praise you."

By the gift and power of the Holy Spirit, teach your Church to walk in the ways of Jesus. May the gospel be found in our minds, in our hearts, and on our lips. Let the peoples praise you, O God;

Let all the peoples praise you.

2 Let the nations be glad and sing for joy, for you judge the peoples with equity and guide all the nations upon earth. We look for the day, O God, when all the peoples gather around your throne in praise and worship. (The people add their thanksgivings.) Let the peoples praise you, O God;

Let all the peoples praise you.

3 O God from whom all good proceeds: bless the earth to bring forth her increase. Guide all your people to honor you by caring for your creation. Let the peoples praise you, O God;

Let all the peoples praise you.

4 Give to our cities and to our homelands, O God, your peace. Shine the light of your love on those places that are plagued by gangs and violence, hatred and sadness. Be merciful to us and bless us. Let the peoples praise you, O God;

Let all the peoples praise you.

5 Almighty God, let your ways be known upon earth, your saving health among all nations. Give to the sick and suffering a taste of the water of life. (The people add their prayers & intercessions.) Let the peoples praise you, O God;

Let all the peoples praise you.

6 Grant us, O God, by your great mercy, entrance into your heavenly city where we might worship at your throne, see you face to face, and reign with you forever and ever. (The people add their remembrances.) Let the peoples praise you, O God;

Let all the peoples praise you.

In the name of Jesus we pray: Let the peoples praise you, O God;

Let all the peoples praise you.

For the Great Fifty Days of Easter, St. Mary's follows the early Church practice of omitting the Confession of Sin in a desire to joyfully celebrate the power and grace of God in the new life of the Resurrection of Jesus the Christ.

The Great Thanksgiving / El Gran Día de Acción de Gracias

O Lord our God, you are worthy to receive glory and honor and power; because you have created all things, and by your will they were created and have their being.

God be with you.
And also with you.

Lift up your hearts.
We lift them to God.

Let us give thanks to our God.
It is right to give God thanks and praise.

God of all power, Ruler of the Universe, you are worthy of glory and praise.
Glory to you for ever and ever.

At your command all things came to be: the vast expanse of interstellar space, galaxies, suns, the planets in their courses, and this fragile earth, our island home.

By your will they were created and have their being.

From the primal elements you brought forth the human race, and blessed us with memory, reason, and skill. You made us the rulers of creation. But we turned against you, and betrayed your trust; and we turned against one another.

Have mercy, Lord, for we are sinners in your sight.

Again and again, you called us to return. Through prophets and sages you revealed your righteous Law. And in the fullness of time you sent your only Son, born of a woman, to fulfill your Law, to open for us the way of freedom and peace.

By his blood, he reconciled us. By his wounds, we are healed.

And therefore we praise you, joining with the heavenly chorus, with prophets, apostles, and martyrs, and with all those in every generation who have looked to you in hope, to proclaim with them your glory, in their unending hymn:

Hymn / Himno WLP 785 | Holy, holy, holy / Santo, santo, santo

¡San - to, san - to, san - to, mi cor - a - zón te a - do - ra! Mi Ho - ly, ho - ly, ho - ly, my heart, my heart a - dores you! My cor - a - zón te sa - be de - cir: san - to e - res Dios.
heart is glad to say the words: you are ho - ly, God.

And so, Father, we who have been redeemed by him, and made a new people by water and the Spirit, now bring before you these gifts. Sanctify them by your Holy Spirit to be the Body and Blood of Jesus Christ our Lord.

On the night he was betrayed he took bread, said the blessing, broke the bread, and gave it to his friends, and said, "Take, eat: This is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

After supper, he took the cup of wine, gave thanks, and said, "Drink this, all of you: This is my Blood of the new Covenant, which is shed for you and for many for the forgiveness of sins. Whenever you drink it, do this for the remembrance of me."

Remembering now his work of redemption, and offering to you this sacrifice of thanksgiving,

We celebrate his death and resurrection, as we await the day of his coming.

Lord God of our Mothers and Fathers; God of Abraham and Sarah, Isaac and Rebecca, and Jacob, Leah and Rachel; God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ: Open our eyes to see your hand at work in the world about us. Deliver us from the presumption of coming to this Table for solace only, and not for strength; for pardon only, and not for renewal. Let the grace of this Holy Communion make us one body, one spirit in Christ, that we may worthily serve the world in his name.

Risen Lord, be known to us in the breaking of the Bread.

Accept these prayers and praises, Father, through Jesus Christ our great High Priest, to whom, with you and the Holy Spirit, your Church gives honor, glory, and worship, from generation to generation. AMEN.

As our Savior Christ has taught us, we now pray in our chosen language and tradition:

Please pray boldly the Lord's Prayer version of your choice and language. The version below is optional.

Por favor, rece con valentía la versión del Padrenuestro de su elección y en el idioma que prefiera. La versión que aparece a continuación es opcional.

Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your Name, your kingdom come, your will be done, on earth as in heaven. Give us today our daily bread. Forgive us our sins as we forgive those who sin against us. Save us from the time of trial and deliver us from evil. For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours, now and forever. Amen.

Communion / Comunión

The risen Christ is the host, and he bids us come and celebrate the feast, to know the power of resurrection, the joy of heaven, the glory of God's grace.

Jesus welcomed everyone to His table and St. Mary's welcomes all to take communion with us.

Jesús dio la bienvenida a todos a su mesa y Santa María da la bienvenida a todos para tomar la comunión con nosotros

 Hal - le, - lu - jah! Hal - le - lu - jah!

Sending Prayer / Enviando Oración

Let us pray together.

Praise and glory to you, Jesus Christ our Savior, for you do not call the righteous but us sinners to repentance. You draw us away from the easy road that would lead to our destruction. You call us instead to seek God's reign, to strive for what is right, and to lay up our treasure in heaven. We thank you faithful God, in this communion you increase our faith and hope and love. Lead us in the path of Christ who is your Word of life. Amen.

Easter Blessing Over the People / Bendición de Pascua sobre la Gente

May Jesus the Christ who has nourished us with himself, the living bread, make you one in praise and love, and raise you up at the last day and may God's Blessing be with us, Christ's peace be with us, the Spirit's outpouring be with us, now and always. Amen.

The Thief on the Cross

“How does the thief on the cross fit into your theology? No baptism, no communion, no confirmation, no speaking in tongues, no mission trip, no volunteerism, and no church clothes. He couldn't even bend his knees to pray. He didn't say the sinner's prayer and among other things, he was a thief. Jesus didn't take away his pain, heal his body, or smite the scoffers. Yet it was a thief who walked into heaven the same hour as Jesus simply by believing. He had nothing more to offer other than his belief that Jesus was who he said he was. No spin from brilliant theologians. No ego or arrogance. No Shiny lights, skinny jeans, or crafty words. No haze machine, donuts, or coffee in the entrance. Just a naked dying man on a cross unable to even fold his hands to pray.”

For God so loved the world he gave his only begotten son so that whosoever believed in him would not perish but have everlasting life. John 3:16
